-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 2-4 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brewer (6,112,700). Brewer shows an at least partially transparent container 10, considered to be a hollow glass brick, for use as an herbarium, terrarium or vivarium comprising a building unit 11 for engaging complementarily shaped containers 11 capable of forming a display arrangement, a substantially continuous interior surface 18 for housing animals, plants or decorative matter having rounded corners (unnumbered) between the interior surface of the neighboring walls 18, 13, 14, 16 of the container and at least one salable aperture 25, 26 extending through a wall of the container 11 for permitting access to the contents of the container 11. The container 11 being substantially square or rectangular and comprising parallel sidewalls 23, 17; opposing parallel end walls 13, 14, a roof 16 and a floor 12. Glass doors 25, 26 are considered to be a plug for sealing the aperture. The device of Brewer being hollow, having a rectangular or brick shape and having at least one side being composed of transparent glass is therefore considered to be able to be defined as “a hollow, transparent glass brick”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brewer in view of Adey (4,333,263). Brewer does not teach the use of a drainage layer composed of charcoal and sand. Adey teaches aquarium filters composed of elements including charcoal and sand, col. 5, lines 35-40. With respect to claim 6, to use the filter composition as taught by Adey with the container of Brewer would have been obvious to one skilled in the art in order to provide an efficient method of treating waste from the animal(s) in the container, further the precise amounts used are obvious to one skilled in the art in order to more effectively filter the waste and the air depending on the amount of animal waste and other chemicals present per each user's container.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 8 is allowed.

Claim 7 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed Jan. 20, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Though the subject matter in claim 3 was previously objected to, further consideration found that the nature of the glass brick was not clearly defined and was therefore still readable on previously presented art and would be obvious to arrange a multiple container display as in a store for effective viewing.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Included for further reference are: Regina (6,988,341), Fisher (5,970,673) and Ashby et al (5,160,566).

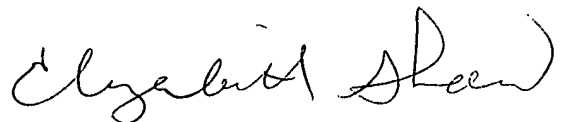

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
